Our eight Ambassador Suites are ideal for families looking for a comfortable and convivial stay.

EXCEPTIONAL SUITE

Our two Exceptional Suites are duplex apartments located on the hotel's top floor.

A private lift leading to a beautiful entrance ensures absolute discretion.

The interior is exceptionally spacious and a large bay window offers a stunning view of Ifrane, the forests and the mountains in the distance. The rooms are huge (with a total of 750 m<sup>2</sup>), the materials are noble (solid wood, marble, slate, gilding), the fabrics are precious, and the technology is cutting edge. Everything comes together to create a unique stay and an unparalleled experience: the cosiness and comfort of a luxury chalet with the services of a five-star hotel.

THE ROYAL PAVILION

The Royal Pavilion is located outside in the park, in a quiet and secluded setting.

It offers the promise of absolute privacy for guests looking for an exclusive stay.

400 m<sup>2</sup> of luxury, refinement and warmth (with a magnificent fireplace), for you and your family. Beauty and elegance reign, with art objects and master paintings dotted around the rooms.

[M] Four restaurants and four dining experiences

LE CEDRAY

As soon as you walk in, you feel as though you are in a luxury mountain chalet. Fir wood reigns throughout, from the wainscot featuring a sculpted garland depicting hunting scenes, to the superb coffered ceilings and the parquet.

The overall effect is superbly natural. The interior features a palette of browns, with the thick curtains and their Tyrolean patterns, and the floral or striped fabric armchairs.

This exquisitely elegant restaurant succeeds in combining the traditional mountain style with contemporary notes to create a warm and welcoming atmosphere.

An open kitchen: behind a large bay window, watch the Chef's team at work as the day's game cooks on skewers in the background.

Le Cedray's menu is an invitation to explore the delights of French gastronomy. The Chef combines terroirs and flavours with harmony and a light touch. Foie gras, feathered game (skewered pheasant is one of Le Cedray's specialities), fish and shellfish... The ingredients are noble, while the dishes are refined and gourmet.

To accompany the Chef's cuisine, Le Cedray has a superb selection of wines. Reputed French wines, such as Petrus Pomerol, Mouton Cadet, Château Cheval Blanc and Chablis, sit alongside the best Moroccan wines. Champagnes from some of the finest houses, such as Roederer, Veuve Clicquot, Moët et Chandon and Mumm, offer the promise of exceptional bubbly moments. Allow yourself to be guided by our maître d'hôtel for the perfect food and wine pairing.

Le Cedray is open every evening from 7.30 to 11 pm.

L'ORIENTAL

A precious stone.

Like a beautiful riad, the wooden coffered ceilings are delicately painted by hand; the floor is laid with marble tiles, each bordered by a mosaic, and the large chimney is also framed in traditional mosaics.

Like a beautiful riad, the traditional benches are covered in luxurious velvet, the tablecloths are made of embroidered organza and the cutlery is made of solid silver.

The Arabic-Andalusian atmosphere and exquisite refinement are highlighted with contemporary touches, such as the Limoges Desoulhières porcelain crockery and stylish armchairs.

A deliciously plush setting for moments to share.

The menu is an invitation to travel through faraway lands, from Morocco, to Jordan and Lebanon. It is a symphony of spices (cardamom, saffron, cinnamon, white chilli pepper, sumac, cloves), candied fruits (dates, lemons, figs), and slowly marinated meats. Morocco's gastronomic tradition is fully expressed, with delicious combinations of savoury and sweet fragrances.

To accompany the Chef's cuisine, L'Oriental has a superb selection of wines. Reputed French wines, such as Petrus Pomerol, Mouton Cadet, Château Cheval Blanc and Chablis, sit alongside the best Moroccan wines. Champagnes from some of the finest houses, such as Roederer, Veuve Clicquot, Moët et Chandon and Mumm, offer the promise of exceptional bubbly moments. Allow yourself to be guided by our maître d'hôtel for the perfect food and wine pairing.

L'Oriental is open every evening from 7.30 to 11 pm.

LE CHALET

Sun-drenched cuisine

When lunchtime arrives, Le Chalet is the perfect place for a delicious and refreshing break.

Comfortably sat beneath the shade of the parasols, taste Le Chalet's harmonious Mediterranean cuisine. Colourful ingredients and aromatic herbs are cooked with care and attention.

The only difficulty is choosing between the succulent Italian pasta, the carpaccio dishes, the tartare dishes, or the vegetables à la plancha. Those with a weakness for rich food will surely succumb to our speciality: fondue!

HOME-MADE BREAKFAST

During the summer, begin the day in the gentle morning warmth. Relax by the poolside, with a glorious view of Ifrane and the mountains as a backdrop. During the winter, enjoy the snug indoors as the snow covers the peaks and forests in a white blanket.

Le Chalet offers a superb setting in which to enjoy home-made food at our sweet and savoury breakfast buffet, including yoghurt, jam (with a festival of local regional fruits), carrot or cucumber juice, pastries and more. Not to forget our traditional Moroccan dishes, such as the famous harira.

We cook for you using natural local ingredients. Create your breakfast plate and get your day off to a great start!

Le Chalet is open every day from 7 am to 4 pm.

THE CLUB HOUSE – A LUXURY RESTAURANT

Like the hotel, the Club House gracefully blends the simplicity of the architectural design and materials with the elegance of the establishment.

With volcanic stone walls, Oregon wood cladding, sloping green-tiled roofs and a beechwood interior, the Club House has a distinctive style.

It is also ideally located between holes 9 and 18!

Opening soon.

[M] Bars

LOUNJA

The Lounja bar is an excellent place to get together at any time of the day, in an oh-so-British atmosphere.

Imagine majestic columns made of Timahdite stone and, in the middle, a fire crackling in an open-sided stone fireplace, with a large overmantel mirror.

WARM AND WELCOMING LUXURY

Dotted around are cosy, secluded lounges, where Ralph Lauren sofas and Chesterfield leather club armchairs sit alongside chequered hide rugs. Authentic and noble materials, harmonious warm shades and subdued lighting set the tone.

Enjoy a fresh fruit juice or non-alcoholic cocktail during the day, or sip a spirit as you listen to the live pianist.

Enjoy the jazzy, relaxed atmosphere and beautiful moments to be shared...

THE SWIMMING POOL

Feel like a snack while you're relaxing by the pool or after a few laps? The swimming pool serves snacks and refreshments throughout the day, to share around a table or on your deck chair. Enjoy the idle life!
